Key Sales Information

(1) A beautiful encounter of science and literature. In the form of letters from different time and space, it combines the big national weapons, marine science and science research stories to string together a history of marine science research. From offshore to distant seas and then to the polar regions; from shallow seas to 10,000-metre depths; from navigation to spaceflight; the scientific and technological innovations carried by the great national weapons open up the readers' dreams of a vast ocean power.

(2) A literary feast of marine knowledge. The vast oceanography is all-encompassing, allowing hard-core knowledge to be told in an emotionally resonant way.

(3) A baptism of scientific thinking and scientific sentiment. The unique period writing of the marine scientist group brings to life the way scientists see the ocean, their spirit of exploration despite the dangers and sacrifices, and their strong sense of nationhood.

(4) An advanced aesthetic experience. The illustrations combine science and art, and the artistic reproduction of the research vessel and deep submersible gives the reader an advanced aesthetic experience.

Selected as a key publication by the Ministry of Propaganda in 2022

Selected as one of the best books in China in July 2022,

Selected as one of the 30 finalists in the Shenzhen Book Month Organizing Committee's "Top Ten Children's Books of the Year" 2022

Description

This is a children's literature on the theme of marine scientific research. Through a warm letter from home and a special letter, it aggregates into a unique portrait of China's marine strategy. From polar research to deep-sea exploration at 10,000 metres, the work presents the brilliant achievements of China's marine science and technology in a large span of time and space. The sea adventures of China's first oceanographic survey vessel Dongfanghong, the Antarctic rescue of the polar icebreaker Xuelong, the silent guardianship of the space survey vessel Yuanwang, and the frightening moment when a manned deep dive was attacked by a black chimney at the bottom of the sea. .... A richly detailed story of scientific research brings together the iterations of the great national weapon of marine scientific research, the generations of Chinese marine scientists. The story is a vibrant representation of the geological and life wonders of the sea, including cold springs and hydrothermal fluids.

Description

This original picture book shows the power of reality. The author dedicates his deep concern to the northwest China, where the people always suffer from the sandstorm, telling a moving story about the sandstorm and people's activities. The protagonist Sha Wa, a little boy, and the magpies living in a poplar tree are good friends. Sha Wa has been curious about what the inside of a magpie net looks like for a long time but he does not have any chance to. One day, the poplar tree was blown down by the sandstorm and Sha Wa could finally see the inside of the magpie net. Sha Wa was surprised by seeing the water in the almost destroyed net, and he felt the ferociousness and gentleness of the nature. The concise text and grand illustration outstandingly present the scenery in northwest China, the great power of the nature and the warmth of the people's emotion. It is a beautiful song for the nature and human nature, which arises the readers to think about the relation between human and nature.

Description

The Rabbit and the Snail is an original picture book with philosophical quality. It tells the story of the different choices in life made by the traveler rabbit and the botanist snail, one fast and the other slow. The rabbit has the distance, but the snail can also devote its life to a petunia that is close at hand. Not only do they reap the joy of success in what they are good at, but they are able to appreciate a life of interest that is completely different from their own. The short stories contain a philosophy of life, and the childlike expressions make the stories even more intriguing. This picture book bridges the boundaries between children and adults and is suitable for parents and children to read together, so that children can see a fun animal story and adults can read more about life.
